3.8.1 INTERIM PAYMENT:

No payment shall be made for work, estimated to cost NRs. Ten lac or less till after the whole of the work shall have been completed and certificate of completion given. For works estimated to cost over NRs. Ten lac the interim or running account bills shall be submitted by the contractor for the work executed on the basis of such recorded measurements. JE-in-Charge shall arrange to have the bill verified by taking or causing to be taken, where necessary, the requisite measurements of the work. All the necessary statutory/mentioned deductions shall be made from the Bill before making its payment. In the event of the failure of the contractor to submit the bills, no claims whatsoever due to delays on payment including that of interest shall be payable to the contractor. As far as possible payment of the Bills shall be processed within 30 days of the receipt of Bill complete in all aspect. However, in case of any delay in payment of intermediate bills beyond 30 days of submission of bill by the contractor provided the bill submitted by the contractor found to be in order no claim of interest or damages shall be admissible for such delay. All such interim payments shall be regarded as payment by way of advances against final payment only and shall not preclude the requiring of bad, unsound and imperfect or unskilled work to be rejected, removed, taken away and reconstructed or re-erected. Any certificate given by the JE-in-Charge relating to the work done or materials delivered forming part of such payment, may be modified or corrected by any subsequent such certificate(s) or by the final certificate and shall not by itself be conclusive evidence that any work or materials to which it relates is/are in accordance with the contract and specifications. Any such interim payment, or any part thereof shall not in any respect conclude, determine or affect in any way powers of the Embassy under the contract or any of such payments be treated as final settlement and adjustment of accounts or in any way vary or affect the contract. All permissible deductions shall be effected during the settlement of Bills.

3.8.2 FINAL BILL PAYMENT:

The final bill shall be submitted by the contractor in the same manner as specified in interim bills within three months of physical completion of the work or within one month of the date of the final certificate of completion furnished by the Embassy whichever is earlier. No further claims shall be made by the contractor after submission of the final bill and these shall be deemed to have been waived and extinguished. Payments of those items of the bill in respect of which there is no dispute and of items in dispute, for quantities and rates as approved by Engineer-in-Charge, will, as far as possible be made within the period of 60 days, the period being reckoned from the date of receipt of the bill complete in all respect by the Embassy. However, in case of any delay in payment of Final bill beyond 60 days of submission of bill by the contractor no claim of interest or damages shall be admissible for such delay. All permissible deductions shall be effected during the settlement of Bills.

3.9 Price escalation, in rates due to any reasons whatsoever, shall not be applicable and payable.

3.10 Specification: The item of work/material used in the work shall be complying with the standard of quality like Indian Standard or equivalent. The material used/or workmanship should be of equivalent or higher standard than the existing standard. Sound engineering practice should be adopted in all items of work execution.

3.11 Non-completion of work: In case of non-completion of work within stipulated time or within approved extended time, the Embassy of India shall be at liberty to confiscate the retention money, performance guarantee and any other dues of the Contractor.

3.12 Force Majeure and EoT clause: In the event of force majeure i.e. unforeseeable events such as war, floods, earthquake etc beyond the reasonable control of the Parties to the contract which prevent either party from meeting their obligations under this contract, the contractual obligations as far as affected by such event shall be suspended for as long as the force majeure continues provided that the other party is notified within two weeks after occurrence of the force majeure. Force Majeure shall not include insufficiency of funds or failure to make any payment required hereunder. In the event of force majeure either party shall be entitled to prolongation of this Contract equal to the delay caused by such force majeure without any additional payment.

In Case of delay of work, the contractor shall apply for Extension of Time citing reasons and justification for delay. The Embassy may consider and extend the time period for completion of work without prejudice to the rights and actions mentioned elsewhere in the document. The decision of the Embassy on the period of justified and unjustified delay shall be final and binding on the Contractor. The embassy under its own right may take action under other clauses of this document for the period considered by it as period of unjustified delay.

3.13 Validity of the Contract: This Contract shall become effective and valid from the execution date of signing of the Contract by both the parties. The contract shall remain valid till the successful completion of the work including the liabilities under DLP.

3.14 Additional Work: Embassy of India, Kathmandu shall not allow any claims for additional work performed by contractor unless the additional work is authorized by Embassy of India, Kathmandu in writing prior to the performance of the additional work or the incurrence of additional expenses. Any additional work authorized by Embassy of India, Kathmandu shall be compensated at a rate mutually agreed to by the parties.
